

August 12th
8am – 5pm

Pondsaway, Inc. Presents

All About Business Aqua Expo

"It is time to shake things up. The economy is not cooperating. The customers are different and their needs are different. I am bringing together business people from around the country whose businesses are growing. I want to find out why they are growing. This is a day to work on your business. Check out our line up and then mark your calendar and register". Kirk Samis
